

Name:

Roll No:

Class: Section:

Date:

WORKSHEET

PROGRAMMING WITH PYTHON

Chapter-9

A. Write any three rules for naming variables in Python.

1.
2.
3.

B. Write 'T' for true and 'F' for false. Correct the false statements.

1. The float () function converts a float or string variable into int data type.
.....
2. Comments are the text written inside the code for better understanding of the code.
.....
3. The + operator is used to check the equality between two values.
.....
4. IDLE stands for Integrated Development and Learning Environment.
.....

C. Match the columns.

Column A

1. print()
2. Run → Run Module
3. //
4. Comment

Column B

- a. Execute a program file
- b. Floor Division
- c. #Program on simple calculator
- d. Display output on the screen

D. Write the names of any three features of Python.

1.
2.
3.