

Name:

Roll No:

Class: Section:

Date:

ETHICS AND SAFETY MEASURES IN COMPUTING

Chapter-4

A. Fill in the blanks using the hints given below:

Hints: Phishing, Trademark, Plagiarism, Patent, Spam

- is a symbol legally registered for use by a company.
- is the practice of taking someone else's idea or creation without his/her permission.
- is the right that gives an inventor the complete right to make, use, and sell his or her work for a specific time period.
- is a cyber crime in which an e-mail that falsely claims to be from a trusted organisation sends to a user.
- is also called as bulk e-mail.

B. Solve the crossword using the clues given below:

Across

- It is also called as network of networks.
- It is the unauthorised access to computer system for the purpose of destroying the system or stealing important information.

Down

- It is a symbol or word legally registered or established and used as representing a company or a product.
- The person who breaks into the computer system for stealing important information.

