

Worksheet

1

Name:

Roll No: Class: Section:

Date:

COMPUTER MALWARE

Chapter-9

A. Tick (✓) the correct option.

- Which of the following is not a symptom of virus?
 - Computer Hangs Frequently
 - Operating System troubles in starting up
 - Computer running all software smoothly
- Which of the following malware don't replicate themselves?

| | | | | | |
|-----------------|--------------------------|---------|--------------------------|----------|--------------------------|
| a, Trojan Horse | <input type="checkbox"/> | b. Worm | <input type="checkbox"/> | c. Virus | <input type="checkbox"/> |
|-----------------|--------------------------|---------|--------------------------|----------|--------------------------|
- Which software is used to protect a computer from different types of malwares?

| | | | | | |
|--------------------|--------------------------|----------------------|--------------------------|--------------|--------------------------|
| a. Word Processing | <input type="checkbox"/> | b. Multimedia Player | <input type="checkbox"/> | c, Antivirus | <input type="checkbox"/> |
|--------------------|--------------------------|----------------------|--------------------------|--------------|--------------------------|

B. Fill in the blanks using the given words.

- is the short form for malicious software. (Virus/Malware)
- Some virus stays dormant but when certain date or event occurs, they get triggered and becomes (Active/Inactive)
- is a self-propagating program that works without human intervention. (Trojan Horse/Worm)
- offers a wide range of antivirus products to protect computers from malwares. (MS Office/Quick Heal)

C. Answer the following questions.

- For the past few days you have noticed that the performance of your computer has been degrading. What can be the reason behind this? How will you fix this issue?
.....
- You have been noticing new files keep on appearing on your computer with strange names and sometimes unusual sounds starts to play. Which type of malware can be behind this?
.....