

Worksheet

Name:

Roll No: Class: Section:

Date:

COMPUTING AND ETHICS

Chapter-11

Class -9

1. State whether the following statement is true or false.

- (a) The word privacy means free from any public attention i.e., not being bothered or witnessed by other people.
- (b) Due to its versatility, Electronic mail has gained a lot of popularity and has become one of the best ways of communication.
- (c) Copyright is used for protecting the different literary works such as different codes of computer programs, databases, novels, poems, and musical compositions.
- (d) Ethics are the subdivision of knowledge that deals with moral ideologies.
- (e) An unstable and continuous Internet connection is required to read and download the emails.
- (f) We should be careless before giving our email addresses to an unknown person.
- (g) The most notable disadvantage of emails is spam.
- (h) The use of weak passwords for money transaction software such as Google Pay, Paytm, and email accounts can protect us from cybercrimes.

2. Give two types of following.

- (a) Software piracy
- (b) Cybercrime
- (c) Intellectual Property Rights

3. Name the type of crime according to the given statements.

- (a) Every year the world loses about $15.4 billion due to theft.
- (b) Digital attacks from one nation to another, causing similar harm as done in actual warfare and /or interrupting the vital computer systems such as Banking, strategic documents of the government.
- (c) Sometimes while selling a new computer, the vendor installs copies of the software on the hard disk which makes the purchase more lucrative
- (d) Open the links and attachments from unknown emails without information
- (e) Accessing other’s social media profiles without their permission
- (f) The trespasser sends a message to a computer with an IP address indicating that the message is coming from the trusted host.
- (g) A person or an organization keeps a check on another organization’s or person’s activities throughout the day and night through the Internet with the intent to collect data on that person.