

Worksheet

Name:

Roll No: Class: Section:

Date:

INPUT IN JAVA

Chapter-5

1. Define the following.

- Exception
- Runtime error
- Try block
- Scanner class
- Instialization
- InputStreamreader class
- Multiline comments

2. Match the following.

| | COLUMN I | | COLUMN II |
|----|---|---|-------------------------|
| 1. | It means assigning an inial value to a variable before using the variable in the program. | A | COMMENTS |
| 2. | They are non-executable statements used to explain the code. | B | EXCEPTION |
| 3. | It is an abnormal condition that can stop the execution of a program or produce an abnormal output. | C | INITIALIZATION |
| 4. | It is a situation in which the execution of a program stops abnormally. | D | INPUTSTREAMREADER CLASS |
| 5. | It is also used to take the input from the user during the execution of the program. | E | ERROR |

3. Match the following.

- The keyword is used to include a package in a program.
- function accepts a string by using a scanner object.
- In Java, a is used to group related classes.
- keyword refers to a non-returnable type function.