

Worksheet

1

Name:

Roll No: Class: Section:

Date:

ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Unit-4 | Chapter-4

1. Tick (✓) the correct option.

(a) The process of establishing an enterprise is called

(i) Entrepreneurship

☐

(ii) Entrepreneur

☐

(iii) Both (i) and (ii)

☐

(iv) None of these

☐

(b) Which of the following is the quality of entrepreneurs?

(i) They are very clear with their targets

☐

(ii) They work hard from the beginning and work for extra hours

☐

(iii) They are courageous

☐

(iv) All of these

☐

(c) Which of the following is not a function of entrepreneurs?

(i) An entrepreneur has to do a lot of exploration before starting a business.

☐

(ii) An entrepreneur identifies the needs and accordingly makes plan of execution.

☐

(iii) According to the need of the project or the business, the entrepreneurs collect information and organize the resources which help their ideas to turn into reality.

☐

(iv) An entrepreneur has not to understand and properly liaison with the government, for legal compliance in concern with all the stakeholders of the enterprise.

☐
☐

2. Fill in the blanks.

(a) are known as job creators.

(b) A business is a company that provides work performed in an expert manner by an individual or a team.

(c) business buys raw material with the intention of using them as ingredients in the making of a new product.

(d) A is an agreement between a small business owner and the parent company.

(e) The most common type of business found in India is

(f) Entrepreneurship contributes to the finance sector on a national scale for the government in the form of which is then redistributed in the society for different services of the nation.