

Name: _____

Roll No: _____

Class: _____ Section: _____ Date: _____

MORE BLOCKS IN SCRATCH

A. Tick (✓) the correct option.

- Which of these blocks are used to control the sound functions of a Sprite?

a. Motion	<input type="checkbox"/>	b. Sound	<input type="checkbox"/>	c. Pen	<input type="checkbox"/>
-----------	--------------------------	----------	--------------------------	--------	--------------------------
- Which block is used to control the appearance of Sprite?

a. Control	<input type="checkbox"/>	b. Looks	<input type="checkbox"/>	c. Event	<input type="checkbox"/>
------------	--------------------------	----------	--------------------------	----------	--------------------------
- What is the color of Looks block?

a. Pink	<input type="checkbox"/>	b. Purple	<input type="checkbox"/>	c. Blue	<input type="checkbox"/>
---------	--------------------------	-----------	--------------------------	---------	--------------------------
- The stage is divided into different values of

a. a and b	<input type="checkbox"/>	b. x and y	<input type="checkbox"/>	c. y and z	<input type="checkbox"/>
------------	--------------------------	------------	--------------------------	------------	--------------------------

B. Fill in the blanks using the hints given below:

Hints: vertical, Go to, think, Events, Looks

- blocks are purple in colour.
- adds a thought bubble to the sprite.
- blocks are yellow in colour.
- block is used to fix the position of the sprite.
- The value of y gives the location of the sprite.

C. Write 'T' for true and 'F' for false.

- You can only move a sprite forward in scratch.
- Looks block is used to add a speech bubble to the sprite.
- We cannot add sound to the sprites in scratch.
- Events blocks are used to actually control the sprite.