

Worksheet

1

Name:

Roll No: Class: Section:

Date:

MORE ON MYSQL

Chapter-4

A. Explain the following operators:

1. AVG():
2. MAX():
3. SUM():

B. Fill in the blanks.

1. The function helps to count the number of records in a table.
2. We can use the clause to group data based on certain values.
3. The keyword is used to sort the results of a query.
4. We can use functions to manipulate strings in MySQL.
5. Date functions typically operate on values of the data type.

C. Match the following.

Column A

1. CHAR()
2. CONCAT()
3. LOWER()
4. UPPER()

Column B

- a. Returns the argument in lowercase of the string supplied as input
- b. Converts the string to the uppercase
- c. Returns concatenated string (joins the strings back to back)
- d. Returns the character for each integer value passed as an argument